Woodward Dawson is an independent, Australian-based recruitment consultancy servicing the 'Engineering & Construction' and Environmental markets in Australia. We truly live and believe in our values of Accountability, Authentic, Integrity and loyalty and apply these in practice in everything that we do. When you need a talented professional, we've got you covered.

Our environmental expertise covers but is not limited to, generic environmental management through to highly specialist skill-sets. Whether you are managing your internal environmental efforts, or indeed on behalf of your client, we can support you at each step of the regulatory process.

This covers, but is not limited to:

- Environmental Management; Post Approvals
- Community & Stakeholder Engagement; Communications
- Environmental Planning
- Contaminated Land Management
- Occupational Hygiene
- Ecology
- Noise & Vibration
- Waste Engineering
- Heritage
